NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Conspiracy to assassinate Theodore P. Shouts, president of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, and Frank Hedley, general manager of the same corporation, will be charged against two men who are detained at police headquarters, the police announced late today.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Spurred by the intentions of "Mother" Jones, milliner agitator, 300 wives and women relatives of striking streetcar men battled with the police late this afternoon in the most serious since the walkout on the tracks two months ago. Night sticks were drawn and left by the police, and many of the women were injured. Some of the rioters carried babies in their arms. A crowd of strikers entered the plant for the early settlement of the strike were discussed.

SUMMARY.

THE SKY. Cloudy. Wind at 5 p.m. moderately; velocity, 3 miles. Thermometer, highest, 68 deg.; lowest, 49 deg. Forecast: Unsettled weather with showers today. For complete weather see last page of Part I.

THE CITY. A Good Roads Committee of the Hundred was formed here to aid in the $15,000,000 bond issue to build the State Highways that will assist in November.

The city asked for a rehearing of the condemnation case, severing the findings of the commissioners.

A man who was officially said some years ago was found serving in a Texas prison and a local wag said for him.

The driver of a runaway milk wagon plunged fifty feet of a bridge, went under, in a honeycomb vine. Two persons were probably fatally injured by skidding under the bridge last evening.

The coming of Sir Rabindranath Tagore is interpreted by a Persian girl of Los Angeles as the answer to the prayer of her to see her mind.

PACIFIC SLOPE. Lloyds of London refused to insure saloon men in Texas going dry.

Mildred McComas is granted a divorce from a noted artist at Salinas.

GENERAL EASTERN. The Christian Brothers College in St. Louis, Missouri, and sister nuns lost their lives. James Ambassador Sato is now in Mexico. It is not stated that Japan is most friendly to the United States.

Progressives and regulars join forces in.

was driving back the few patrolmen on the scene when an automobile load of police reinforcements arrived. The reserves plunged into the midst of the struggling mob and divided their club without mercy. When the rebels finally fled, there left nine prisoners—six women and three men—in the hands of the police.

HOW IT STARTED.

The trouble began when the women, who had been shouting for "Mother" Jones, had exhorted them to "get the scabs off the cars."

"You are too sentimental," she cried, "staying at home thinking of your babies when you ought to be out raising hell."

Trooping into the street, the women hooted and jeered at cross-towners in the Eighth Street. Suddenly a cloud of automobile smoke hurried through the window of a car halted by a large automobile truck. This seemed the signal for a general attack on the car and in less than a minute the rebels were at work. A patrolman who was on strike duty on the car escaped the forty or fifty passengers into the street and then charged alone into the crowd of jeering women. He was helpless, however, until assistance arrived.

CAR WRECKED.

Meanwhile the car was being wrecked as piece after piece of broken asphalt from a pile on the sidewalk was hurled at it. Motorists who were walking by stopped to sight after several women clambered aboard the car and pulled them into the street. The women's clothing was torn, their faces scratched and bruised. It was not until the loss of automobile reserves arrived that a semblance of order was restored.

One of the women was charged by the police with dragging a man from his car. She asserted the child was left on the sidewalk and two hours after the riot the child of it had been found.

Before the meeting of the women closed, a committee was appointed to arrange for a woman's parade from Union Square to the City Hall, where an attempt will be made to present the demands of the strikers probably will be held Monday.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, conferred today with William B. Fitzgerald, general organizer of the unorganized Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees, and James H. Vahey, of counsel for the association. It was reported that plans for the early settlement of the strike were discussed.

The Franco was a vessel of 15,100 tons gross and was built in 1910. Her maiden voyage was between Liverpool and Boston in February, 1911.

The Franco was 625 feet long, 72 feet wide, and displaced 25,000 tons. When she was built she was considered one of the most comfortable steamers of the Cunard Line. A striking feature of the salon appointments was the absence of staterooms on the boat deck, which was devoted to a promenade room, a library, a gymnasium and a lounge and smoking room. The vessel was nicknamed the "Bath ship," inasmuch as she had more bathrooms and showers than the Mauretania, this equipment being installed for the benefit of passengers on long cruises to the Mediterranean. The steerage of the Franco was considered the best appointed of any steamer carrying third-class passengers. Staterooms had been eliminated and staterooms capable of accommodating four, six, and eight persons, had been installed.

The last report of the Franco on June 19, announced that she had been chartered to carry British troops to the Dardanelles.

SERBS NEAR MONASTIR; RUMANIANS DEFEATED.

Army of Fifteen Thousand Reported Killed or Captured by Bulgars.

BY ARTHUR S. DRAPER.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Oct. 5.—While the battle in the Dobrudja still hangs in the balance, the allied forces are sweeping forward along the whole Macedonian front. The Serbs are now only eight miles from Monastir, the British have established themselves firmly on the east bank of the Struma, while the French are preparing for a blow along the Vardar.

Much mystery surrounds the fate of the Rumanian troops which crossed into Bulgaria. The only certain thing is that the operation has come to an abrupt halt. Bushy arrest admits these forces have been withdrawn to the northern bank of the Danube. But Sofia tells of routing completely the 15,000 troops who crossed and killing and capturing most of them. On the Dobrudja the battle depends in large part on the conduct of the allied offensive in the Balkans. Mackensen apparently has massed in force against him and with the Rumanians are battering at the German line incessantly. The allied troops took three days to cross the Danube. This indicates that the tide is still with the allies. If Mackensen is defeated, despite the stiff resistance of his troops, the British and allies can be supplied to Bulgaria. The battle will then be the whole tendency of the operations in the Balkans, a drive southward from the Dobrudja by the Rumanians and a thrust northward by Mackenzoff. The Wehrmacht is still advancing, while a severe battle is in progress, tells of stubborn fighting and adds ironically: "We have succeeded at various points in our enemy's position." The decision has not yet been reached. But one thing seems certain, the struggle cannot continue with its present fury for many more days.

PARIS, Oct. 5 (via London, 7:45 p.m. (via London, 11:50 p.m.)—The Italian official statement issued today reads:

"Our cavalry from Argiro Castro advanced to Georgiavate and Estiops in the Drynos Valley, which they occupied. The allied cavalry units, moving from Delvin, established communication with the Argiro Castro garrison.

"In the Travignolo, October 2, the enemy launched new attacks again and again in the Col de Berard, while further east they have been driven to cross the Cerna, thus threatening the town on the flank. But before it falls a desperate battle can be expected for the town, which stands four miles to the south.

"On the left flank, where the British are striving to take Sere, they have won a hold on the road to that town and are advancing on it. To the south the sombre signs of war. Everywhere they were driven off."

"Yesterday efforts were renewed with fresh troops, who succeeded in retaking one advanced position which we had captured the previous morning.

"On the remainder of this front the enemy was repulsed with heavy loss. In the upper Cordevalle, a surprise attack on the slopes of Mount Sief was driven off. The enemy, who had already advanced to several points at several points in the front. Some damage is reported in the villages of Sano, in the Adige Valley, Forni Avoltri, in the upper Dora Valley, Timi and Pauli, in the Bormi Valley and also in Genua.

"Our batteries effectively retaliated, destroying enemy encampments at Birnau, in the Gall Valley, besides wrecking the enemy's lines on the Corno.

AMSTERDAM (via London) Oct. 5.—The whole enterprise of the Rumanians who succeeded in transferring two divisions (24,000 men) across the Danube, says the Frankfurter Zeitung, has now collapsed. The Rumanians, who were subjected to an enveloping attack had to recross to the north bank of the river in boats, the newspaper adds, and only a few scattered bodies remain on the south side.

ADDITION OF BUCHAREST.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BUCHAREST (via London) Oct. 5—Announcement was made here officially today that the Rumanian troops which crossed the Danube and invaded Bulgaria have returned to the north bank of the river.

RETRANSIT IN TRANSYLVANIA.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BUENOS AIRES (via London) Oct. 5.—The Rumanians are retreating in Transylvania in the region of Bebek, north of Fogaras, and also on both sides of the Strelly Valley, in the vicinity of Haseg, the War Office announced today. At the only point at which they had reached the Tisza, they were driven out.

Desperate attacks by the Russians are continuing in the Austro-German front west of Lutsk, in Volhynia, the War Office announced today. At the only point at which they had reached the Tisza, they were subsequently driven out.

THE LOS ANGELES ADVERTISING SCORE.

In printing the advertising records of all the daily and Sunday newspapers in Los Angeles every day The Times does not attempt to mislead or deceive its readers by using figures that concern only certain kinds of advertising. It boldly publishes the figures of all classes of advertising printed in each local newspaper.

The juggling of figures is left to those newspapers that dare not tell the whole truth and that have not the courage or fairness to make honest comparisons.

For the week ending Sunday, October 1, the Los Angeles news papers published the following number of lines of advertising (200 equal lines make one column):

DEATH SENTENCE ON ESSAD PASHA STANDS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Oct. 5, 10:40 a.m.—A report on the death sentence pronounced by a court martial in Constantinople on Essad Pasha, former provisional President of Albania, has been received in Amsterdam, according to a dispatch to Reuter's.

The new Ambassador is no stranger to the United States, for he passed years here as a student and was later secretary in the Japanese Legation.

"I have many schoolmates in America," he said. "Many of whom are now prominent in the government service, in commerce and in trade. My long acquaintance with America will be a great help in discharging my duty."

Mr. Sato was born of a Samurai family at Hirotsaki. He was graduated from the University of Waseda in 1881. In the same year he was appointed a clerk of the Foreign Office in Tokio. He was named secretary to the Japanese Legation in Washington in 1886.

He was Minister to Mexico in 1896, but was recalled to the Foreign Office to take up his new duties as Japanese Ambassador to Washington, the views of Almoro Sato on many of the vital international questions having been announced in America for the first time, questions on which he failed to touch in his address before the Senate.

He is true that there have been differences between America and Japan, there being a certain hostility between the two nations, and the preparedness movement is fast gaining ground in the United States, but still there is no reason that Japan and America should not remain in friendly terms, asserted Mr. Sato.

Mr. Sato is not accompanied by his family.

MORGAN LITIGATION ENDS.

Report of Special Master in Chancery Approved by Federal Court.

DENVER, Oct. 5.—The report of E. C. Stimson, special master in chancery appointed to investigate litigation between executors of the estate of the late J. Pierpont Morgan and Col. James A. Owsley, in a case of alleged settlement between Mr. Morgan and Mr. Owsley in coal properties in Southern Colorado and Northern New Mexico, was approved in Federal District Court for Colfax today.

The report found that accounts prior to April 18, 1910, between Mr. Morgan and Mr. Owsley had been adjusted.

The litigation brings long litigation nearly to an end.

GROWER OF WINE

GRAPES IS DEAD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

FRESNO, Oct. 5—George P. Beveridge, district manager for the California Wine Association, with headquarters in Fresno, died at his home here today after a short illness.

Mr. Beveridge was taken ill suddenly two days ago at his club. He said, "I had been engaged in the grape growing and wine business for more than twenty-five years and was one of the prominent business men of the San Joaquin Valley."

He is survived by a wife, four daughters and one son. This son, George P. Beveridge, Jr., resides in San Francisco.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, announced today that he had been in touch with a summons in a suit for damages demanded of Mr. McCormick by Mr. O'Leary, president of the American Truth Society.

"My purpose in suing Mr. McCormick is to find first whether his position, so-called, is libelous, and, secondly, whether it is inconsistent with the principles I also hold. I am challenging him to let an American jury decide whether a protest to the President, because he has not enforced American rights against Great Britain, is a dishonorable and baseless imputation contained in his statement that any man running for a public office could repudiate my vote or the votes of millions of my fellow-citizens who think as I do. O'LEARY'S FEELING.

"A citizen's loyalty to his country is not a proper part of a political campaign and, therefore, I feel that it is wrong to assert it politically, because it strikes at the fundamental principles of our country.

"What right would Charles E. Hughes have to repudiate me? What right has he to repudiate a voter who would vote for him? I yield to Mr. Wilson and his right for Mr. Wilson, no matter how faithless I believe Mr. Wilson has been in protecting American lives, property and commerce, would support him. I am sure that he has supported Mr. Wilson, and that the house had been set on fire to conceal the crime.

The prosecution closed its case.

Mr. McCormick, in his defense, said:

"I am deeply mortified to have to report of the United States Postmaster, bore every evidence of having been killed in front of United States post offices in Shanghai.

It is vital importance for the protection of American commerce that the American mail be inviolable.

The State Department has agreed to take immediate and steps to prevent further damage to the inviolability of the United States mails on the Pacific route.

Pasadena.

ASK SANTA FE TO MOVE TRACK.

Crown City Ambitious to Have Streets Clear.

President Ripley Says Would Cost Million.

Suggestion Made All Railroads Join in Movement.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE) PASADENA, Oct. 6.—The city of Pasadena has a request to make of the Santa Fe Railroad. It is this: Will the railroad please remove its track from the heart of the city and let the steel rails run around the suburbs to the southwest?

When the Crown City's wish was made known to President Ripley of the railroad company he gravely shook his head and said: "That would cost several million dollars."

Pasadena is ambitious for a civic center, and the railroad stands in the way of this project. Although it would be a tremendous undertaking to have the railroad track removed, the City Commissioners and other officials have hopes that it can be accomplished.

The Commissioners have suggested that the road should be moved to the east of the foot of the Rosemont hills, run around the southeast outskirts of the city and connect with the old Southern Pacific right of way to Monrovia.

The Commissioners think possibly the Santa Fe, Southern Pacific and Salt Lake roads could be induced to combine in such a manner as to remove the present ugly black scar from the face of Pasadena.

Library Park seems to be the logical spot for the nucleus of a civic center, but it would be impossible to carry out this plan with the railroad where it is.

The Commissioners think possibly the railroad change its course.

"Aside from the fact that the railroad blocks our civic center plan, it is also the cause of the great number of serious accidents at grade crossings and the terrible noise of the trains," A. L. Hamilton, chairman of the City Commission, said. "The railroad's proposed track through the heart of the city is upgrade and the monster engines, pulling heavy loads, make a great noise and shake the earth."

The railroad causes many of the north and south streets above grade. Every year there are many fatal accidents at these crossings. Under the present arrangement the trains are a public menace. This is a big problem, and it will be slow of solution, but we are hopeful."

HUNT ELECTION OFFICIALS.

It is with great difficulty that City Clerk Dyer is finding persons in the fashionable residential parts of Oak Knoll, San Rafael Heights and Prospect Square. The $5 a day paid to members of election boards does not appeal to the wealthy men of this district from a financial point of view. City Clerk Dyer is trying to appeal to the patriotism and civic pride of the aristocrats. Deputy City Clerk, Walter, made a tour of the Oak Knoll district yesterday in favor of the election of the entire Republican ticket, and the local club organizations seem to look out for Republican interests in Ontario at the November election.

PEPPER TREE BLOWN DOWN.

Strange Experience of a Man at Beaumont While Riding in Automobile.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

BEAUMONT, Oct. 5.—As a result of its roots having been loosened by the recent rains, and with its branches tossed by a heavy wind, a large pepper tree was blown across the county highway between this city and Banning yesterday. In falling the tree struck W. C. Stewart, local manager for the Standard Oil Company, and knocked him from the seat of the motor delivery truck in which he was riding. Mr. Stewart fell directly in front of the wheels, and had the car not been firmly held by the branches of the tree he would have been over.

An autoist who was following drove around the obstruction, but did not stop or offer to assist the fallen man. Stewart, although painfully injured in the back and chest, finally recovered sufficiently to extricate the car from the tree's branches. He found it to be practically undamaged and drove it to his home in this city, where he secured medical attention.

REPUBLICANISM GOOD INVESTMENT.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

ONTARIO, Oct. 6.—Contributions to the Republican campaign fund should be looked upon as an investment rather than a donation according to Welles T. Ross, president of the Ontario Hughes-Parkers Club, at an enthusiastic and largely-attended meeting of the organization at the Ontario Public Library last night.

The complaint was made that the complaint was that at the time Harada bought the property he was a subject of the Imperial Japanese government, and that no treaty existed between the two countries whereby a subject of the empire could acquire land in this country.

The defense was that the defendant acquired the property it escheated to the government of the State of California.

The complaint was that the court ruled that the property had escheated to the State, that it be ordered sold according to law, that Harada be declared to have no title in the property, and that a receiver be appointed.

Judge Clark said this was the first of a series of similar cases to be brought by the State. The action was taken, he said, at the suggestion of Oberly, a San Bernardino lawyer.

The naming as co-defendants of the three minor children, born in this country, Judge Clark said, was to test the spirit of the law as well as the spirit of the people of the State that the defense might be that the property had been transferred to the children, who, as American citizens, might be considered to have a right to hold the property.

Ujira, Oyama, Japanese Consul here, Judge Clark said, had made inquiries concerning the suit and asked for a trial by a jury. The trial of the State that the defense might be that the property had been transferred to the children, who, as American citizens, might be considered to have a right to hold the property.

The anti-alien, Judge Clark explained, provides that an alien heir might come into property in California, then the court shall escheat the property of such aliens to the State, it and not the heirs, instead of to the State. In the present case, if Harada could hold property legally, the three children, the three minor children, would inherit it, because they are American citizens. It is the State's theory, however, that if the property was transferred to the children, the father and the wife die, the wife and the children will be their heir and under the law be entitled to receive the proceeds of the sale, although the law provides that property of an alien, acquired after the passage of the law, shall be escheated—confiscated and sold, the proceeds going to the State. It is to clear up this point that the children were made co-defendants.

ONCE LOVE NEST, NOW CALF THEFT.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

COLTON, Oct. 5.—Charles Mashburn, manager of the Ford garage, and M. C. Kelso, an employee, miraculously escaped serious injury yesterday when their car, which was going at a high-rate of speed, skidded on a railroad crossing near Redlands and turned over. A window was thrown clear, but his companion was pinned beneath the machine. Both were badly cut about the face and bruised. A valuable automobile which was in the car was destroyed after the accident and has not yet been recovered.

The anti-alien, Judge Clark explained, provides that an alien heir might come into property in California, then the court shall escheat the property of such aliens to the State, it and not the heirs, instead of to the State. THE HUSBAND HUNTS FOR LOST WIFE.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

POMONA, Oct. 5.—The valley people began a search for Mrs. Bassett Brooks of Redlands, who disappeared from this city Tuesday afternoon. Her husband, C. E. Brooks, a Redlands butcher, was here today to call on her mother, Mrs. Molie Friday, No. 817 West First street. He went from here to Los Angeles with Police Chief Larimore of Redlands.

Mrs. Brooks came here a week ago to visit her mother. Tuesday afternoon she started for Los Angeles, saying she was going to work there while she was here. She wore a dark suit and dark hat and carried a suitcase marked "B. B." She is 23 years old, fair and weighs 140 pounds.

The husband said she had been in poor health since she suffered an attack of scarlet fever about a year ago, and that she is subject to mild attacks of dementia.

AGED RESIDENT DIES.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

SANTA MONICA, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Patience C. Prescott of 1204 Second street, died at her home at the age of 85 years. Mrs. Prescott was a resident of Santa Monica for five years, coming here from Springfield, Mass. The surviving her are Mrs. E. L. Nickerson, Mrs. M. G. Green, daughter, and Alfred C. Prescott of Santa Monica, and F. W. Prescott of New York. She is also survived by a grandchild, Mrs. A. N. Colton of Santa Monica. Funeral services will be held from the residence Friday afternoon.

WAGON CRUSHES FOOT.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

ONTARIO, Oct. 5.—Gordon H. Green, city employee, sustained a fractured right foot and ankle this morning while working at the city yards. Green, with fellow-employees, was engaged at shifting a wagon when he slipped from an x-ray photograph revealed several broken bones. He was taken to his home in Bon View avenue. He is 31 years of age and has a wife.

Riverside. JAP ALIEN LAW TO BE TESTED.

Suit Brought Against Yukie Harada and Sons.

Owner of a Fashionable Home in Riverside.

Bitter Contest and Appeal to the Highest Court.

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 5.—A suit involving potential international complications will file here today in the name of the people of the State of California against Yukie Harada, a Japanese, who has acquired a piece of land in the name of the people of the State of property in a school residence section on Lemon street.

This is the first action to be brought against a Japanese under the provisions of the Alien Land Act of 1913. It is generally believed here that the suit will go to the highest court in the land.

The papers were filed in the Superior Court by Special Attorney Robert M. Clark, acting for Atty. Gen. U. S. Webb, and ex-Senator Miguel Estudillo of this city.

The action is the climax of a series of efforts to oust Harada from the precincts of Lemon and Lemon streets, where he is erecting a large house. The efforts have been continuing for a long time.

Practical Suggestions.

Should it happen that you are out of the right kind of oil for your dustless mop, you may in the emergency use coal oil to moisten it, being careful not to let it get lighted matches until all fumes have disappeared.

Just "Home."

If you ever get to thinking that you are "tired of Los Angeles and would like to live somewhere else," just go away for a day or two, when you return every yellow street car will seem to greet you with a friendly wag of its tail, every cobblestone will wink at you a mischievously, you will begin to grin with pleasure, and Miss Margaret Stockwell, accompanied by Mrs. Anderson, will sing soprano solos. Mrs. Lydia W. Harmon and Mrs. Sidney A. Cox will speak, and Ella Bacon Bales will give an interpretative reading.

United Sisterhood of Peace.

Mrs. Frank A. Stevens, formerly president of the Los Angeles Federation of Clubs, will be the speaker at the United Sisterhood of Peace meeting in the assembly hall of the Broadway Department Store tomorrow. Mrs. Stevens will tell the "Dancers of Nationality" for her theme, and a programme of music and union singing will also be presented.

Children's Photoplay.

A conference of the civic chairmen of the Federated Clubs will be held in the assembly hall at the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon. Mrs. W. A. Galentine, district chairman of the civic clubs, will preside. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the photoplay question as it affects the school children, and a programme of music and union singing will also be presented.

The College Women.

The College Woman's Club will hold its first meeting tomorrow in the clubrooms at the Brack-Shoppe. The theme of the reception and barbecue, arranged at which the presidents, past and present, will be the hostesses for the day. The Manual Arts Quintette will furnish music, and Miss S. F. Berger, lyric soprano, will sing two groups of songs.

The Hospital Committee for the day will be composed of Mrs. A. L. Wills, Mrs. C. C. Scott, Mrs. Roger Sterritt, Mrs. S. E. Epler, Miss Louise Ermann and Mrs. S. F. Berger.

Next Friday afternoon the college women will meet at Dr. Adella Reinhardt, president of Mills College, in the Brack-Shoppe tea room.

ASSOCIATION GROWING.

Board of Managers of Y.W.C.A. Hold Monthly Meeting.

The board of managers of the Young Women's Christian Association held its October meeting yesterday at the Hollywood studio clubhouse. The secretaries of the various departments reported on work done during the summer months and sketched the plans for the fall work.

Mrs. J. Hole presided and led the discussion, following reports. Miss Clara L. Tait, who will be in charge of the chicken dinner to be held to start the work this fall, also spoke. Four hundred and thirty-three new members joined the association in September alone, the reports show.

TREND OF THE FINANCIAL NEWS.
CHIEF EVENTS OF YESTERDAY.

(At Home:) Extraordinary breadth marked trading on the New York Stock Exchange, with total sales of 1,260,000 shares. Many stocks recorded the best prices since 1914. Bonds were strong, on wider operations, with total sales of $7,470,000.

(Abroad:) According to a wireless dispatch from Rome, the Greek government has suspended payments because of a shortage of money.

THAT CHINESE LOAN.
There must be an awful lot of money in this land of the free when China is able to borrow $60,000,000.

THE GREATER EVENT.
There will be nothing done either in the way of Presidential politics or the settlement of the Mexican question until the conclusion of the world's series, beginning in Boston Saturday. Smaller events must wait.

A BRAVE GOVERNOR.
Gov. Whitman will not convene a special session of the New York Legislature to pass laws dealing with the strike. He is not to be intimidated by pistol-pointing labor leaders or the intrigues of Democratic politicians.

WORDS OF WISDOM.
Viscount Bryce, former British Ambassador to Washington, decries the spirit of hate that is manifested against the Germans, and opposes a lasting trade war. He is in favor of a suppression of such a feeling and argues for arbitration. Things are "workin'" even in England.

MR. WILSON'S BAD JUDGMENT.
The French are rather busy with affairs close to the gates of Paris, but the condition in Mexico has grown so bad that they are protesting against the effects of Mr. Wilson's attitude toward that country. And after the war is over, England, Germany, Belgium and France will have plenty of time to ask embarrassing questions. Considering the mess he has made of things involving future difficulties, Mr. Wilson would show better judgment in trying to evade a second term than in seeking it.

WHIRLING WOODROW.
The fundamental difference between the Republican and the Democratic candidate for the Presidency is that Mr. Hughes means what he says and says what he means, and his record furnishes abundant proof that he will do whatever he says he will do. Mr. Wilson on the contrary says what he does not mean, and means what he does not say and recalls both his sayings and his meanings with the celerity of an old-fashioned windmill which whirls in a new direction with every shift of the breeze.

"What," asked a Washington correspondent of a southern Senator who was supposed to be always persona grata at the White House, "is President Wilson's present attitude on the Mexican question?" "I must answer you," was the reply, "as the hotel clerk answers the guest who inquires as to the locality of the Methodist Church, 'Dammit, for I haven't seen him since breakfast.'"

WAS IT PIRACY?
Hans Lageroff, an American citizen of Swedish parentage, sailed from New York on the Swedish-American steamship Stockholm, bound for Gothenburg in Sweden. He had in his valise or on his person $10,000 in gold. The vessel was stopped on the high seas by a British cruiser and taken to Kirkwall and her cargo and passengers searched. The $10,000 in gold was taken from Lageroff on suspicion that he intended to take it into Germany. The British government released the ship and permitted Lageroff to return to New York on her return voyage, but it kept the gold.

In what particular this act differed from piracy which should have caused its perpetrators to be hanged at the yard arm is not clear to one who is unable to draw a distinction between a slight violation of international law and plain robbery.

RESULTS OF THE SOUTH BEING IN THE SADDLE.

Twelve Southern Democratic States pay for their share of the war taxes, corporation tax and income tax $13,562,455. Twelve Northern Republican States pay $165,727,784. Reports of the Secretary of the Treasury show that more than three-fifths of the income and corporation taxes last year were collected in New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Massachusetts and that the normally Democratic States contributed about 5 per cent of the total.

When it comes to spending the money the apportionment is different. The Rivers and Harbors Bill for the past session of Congress appropriated $40,598,125. Of this amount $16,594,000 went into thirteen Southern States, and the balance ($23,904,105) was left for thirty-five Northern and Western States.

The State of Texas received $2,728,500 for its Trinity River and other waterless streams. According to the army engineer's report it will be necessary to dig artesian wells to supply some of these "rivers" with water.

WHERE TO STRIKE.
Strike at the saloon, not at the smiling, harmless vineyards of California! Strike at the booze habit, not at the grape. Strike at the most potent source of human misery and degradation, not at honest tillers of the soil who are getting a living by making vines grow where nothing else will flourish. Strike at the real evil and not at the thing that has great power for good—for moderation and real temperance. That is the advice of The Times to the temperance workers of California.

The Times cannot believe that it is the part of wisdom or godliness to destroy the great, flourishing vineyard industry of California, on which 50,000 people depend for a livelihood in one way or another. The Times cannot be blind to the unfairness of confiscating $150,000,000 worth of vineyard and winery property without compensation—and that is what the proposed prohibition enactments would do. Ladies and gentlemen voters, put yourselves in the places of the owners of these properties!

The proponents of the prohibition propositions have not gone at this thing right. They should have attacked the saloon evil instead of the vineyards and the vineyardists. To vote for the propositions Nos. 1 and 2 on the November ballot, as they stand, would be equivalent to voting in Illinois to take the corn-raising farmers' lands away from them, or in Dakota to despoil the farmers of their wheat fields. Proposition No. 1 would confiscate the vineyards and No. 2 would destroy the value of their product. Is it fair, is it just, is it doing by others as we would have them do by us?

The Times has been abused and has heard its motives impugned for daring to stand out against confiscation and destruction and injustice—but it will always stand against these things. Confiscatory legislation (the Adamson eight-hour law, for instance) has become a political fad, but The Times will have none of it. Unless property rights are respected, our institutions will go to smash. Without due regard to the law of mine and thine, we will come to chaos.

The most dreadful evil in the world today, the most costly to civilization, is the common grog shop. Out with it! The time has come to do away with it. That is the thing to strive for, rather than the ruination of the vineyardists of California, the honest, patient, sober, hard-working, high-minded men and women who have made the desert bring forth fruit.

It was not good understanding that led the anti-saloons and prohibitionists of California to open fire on the grape-growers rather than on the saloons. California has none too many profitable industries giving employment to workers at good wages. One of them is the fast-growing viticultural industry; and to ruthlessly confiscate that now and impoverish its developers and workers would be a cruel act for which every participant in the unfairness would some day suffer remorse.

There can be no defense of the cheap saloon, no apology for boozing, but the movement to annihilate the $150,000,000 vineyard business cannot be justified by any principles of economics, any theories of sound government policy or any consideration for fair play.

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

I NOCOMPETENT DANIELS.

The sins of the Democratic party and the righteous acts of the Republican party during the Civil War, the period of reconstruction, and the maladministration of Grover Cleveland, do not concern us now except in so far as they "point a moral and adorn a tale." It is the duty of the hour to repair the mischief wrought by President Wilson and his Congress and to see to it that he and the Congress to be elected in November shall be remitted to the seclusion of private life. Maybe Mr. Wilson "kept us out of war," and maybe it was Kaiser William, and maybe it was that fate that spins and cuts the threads of national as of individual life. Anyway, there is practically now no danger of being drawn into the great conflict.

The pending question before the voters of the United States is whether Republican or Democratic principles and policies will better promote the permanent safety and welfare of the nation, and which of the nominees for the Presidency will be more certain to "preserve, protect and defend" the Constitution of the United States. Preparedness, protection, prosperity and legislation procured by reason and not by intimation are the pending questions.

The administration of President Wilson after two years of dawdling finally consented to promote preparedness, and Congress reluctantly adopted it, and appropriated large sums of money to carry it into effect. Whether preparedness will now proceed with celerity and efficiency will depend no longer upon legislation, but upon those charged with the administration of the law.

The efficiency of the navy will depend upon placing a competent red-blooded American in the office now administered by incompetent and cold-blooded Josephus Daniels, who did all that was in his power to do to prevent provision to increase the strength and efficiency of the navy. He pigeon-holed or distorted recommendations made by experienced naval officers. He gave his time to the making of petty and harassing regulations such as selling the cut glass table mess and forbidding the use of wine at their table. He denounced the building of more battleships as "a mad rivalry in construction" which constituted "a burden too heavy for any nation to bear." He plotted and procrastinated and did not begin work on two battleships authorized by Congress on March 15, 1915. He did allow one to the May Island navy yard, but there is grave doubt whether it can ever be sent to sea unless a new channel shall be dredged at a cost of $4,000,000.

Daniels has neither the ability nor the disposition to wisely and effectively expand the money voted by Congress for naval construction, and it, as a consequence of the November election, he shall be assured another four years of occupancy of the naval bureau he will interpose delays and obstacles toward the construction of our

DOBRODJA, BATTLEFIELD OF FATE.

[CONTRIBUTED TO THE TIMES.]
BY SVETOZAR TONJOROFF,
Author of "Russia's Struggle for an Outlet" and "The War of the Nations."

SUCH is the description and the history of the Rumanian province of Dobrojda, that triangle between the Danube and the Black Sea where the armies of seven nations are struggling for the mastery of the Balkans and of the "bridge" from Berlin to Bagdad.

Trajan's legions called it Scythia Minor when they marched over it to carry the fame and power of Rome across the Danube, to the vast plains of the greater Scythia.

The peasants of Dobrojda still point out a scattered ruin, running along the railroad from Tchernovo to the barrier which the Emperor built in the first half of the second century to guard his eastern realm from the incursions of the Scythians. Though archaeologists throw doubt upon the authenticity of the ruin, the belief in its antiquity gives some idea of the depth to which the roots of the Dobrojda extend in the soil of time.

The present ruler of the Dobrojda originated in one of those political earthquakes which have shaken the Balkan peninsula and its peoples at all too frequent intervals since the beginning of history. It was in the fourteenth century, when the Romans were hardly more than a memory in the Balkans, that a Bulgarian prince, Dobrojda, established in that corner of the world a Bulgarian principality. The town of Dobrojda, which the Romans called Dobrojda, is named for that prince.

Prince Dobrojda made Dobrojda a power in the eastern world for a brief period. He challenged the might of the Byzantine empire, took Varna, the adjacent port on the Black Sea, from the Emperor and even ventured upon a path of maritime conquest to the island of Trebisond, on the Black Sea.

Then came the Turks, and this ceased in Dobrojda as a clock ceased when it has run down.

The Dobrojda was next heard of in the last quarter of the nineteenth century. At that time Russia had vanquished Turkey with some help from Rumania. To reward her ally, Russia permitted Rumania to enter Dobrojda with its 750,000 square miles of territory and 200,000 souls. In return, however, Russia herself annexed the Rumanian province of Bessarabia. The congress of Berlin sanctioned the transaction.

This was a poor exchange for the Rumanians from every point of view—and it had an incidental effect of bringing Rumania into chronic friction with the newly-created Bulgaria, because the territory taken over by the government at Bucharest belonged to Bulgaria geographically, racially and strategically.

A marsh in the north, an arid desert in the middle, and mountainous in a good part of the region where it is neither desert nor marsh, the Dobrojda as defined at the congress of Berlin touched along its southern border a singularly fertile part of Bulgaria, the plains around the Tisza, Tisrakan, the Danube, and the Dobrojda region. So, to compensate themselves for the loss of Bessarabia to their ally, Russia, the Rumanians watched their opportunity.

The opportunity came in 1913. Bulgaria, engaged with four nations on her southern, western and eastern fronts, was confronted with a demand from Bucharest for the cession of the rich strip of territory adjoining the Dobrojda. When Bulgaria marched in and occupied Sistria, Tutrakan and all the Dobrojda region, So, to compensate themselves for the loss of Bessarabia to their ally, Russia, the Rumanians watched their opportunity.

It was believed that the long and costly war between Bulgaria and Rumania would bring about a change of fortune. CHICAGO CUBS CHOOSE PASADENA AS THEIR TRAINING GROUNDS.

The Chicago "Cubs" are to use beautiful Pasadena as a place for their spring training, and preparations are now going on to take care of them in the hospitable manner of which Southern Californians alone are capable. Early in the spring a special train, much like that which bore the Chicago White Sox and their rooters to the Coast several years ago, is to head for these parts and a party of close to 100 people will make the trip. At the present time work is going on in preparation for the arrival of the National Leaguers and the shower baths and other accommodations are now being put up. While the location is not generally known, it is suspected to be Tournament Park. Exhibition games will be arranged between the Cubs and the Coast League teams, which will also be training in these parts, so that we will have plenty of baseball to liven up the hitherto dull pre-season days.

Football.
COUNTY LEAGUE SCHEDULE OUT.

Long Beach Plays Pasadena Thanksgiving Day.

Trojan Frosh to Play L. A. Junior College Today.

Hollywood has Strong Team this Year.

Long Beach High at Whittier High Saturday afternoon will be the first game of the major section of the County League football schedule.

Although this league is, in size, one of the smallest in the south, it has the pick of the football squads in the county outside of the City League. Owing to the fact that there were only four teams in the league, which afforded only three games for each team and only six games in the entire league schedule, representation of schools concerned met last week and discussed the proposition and attempted to get more schools into the league, but could not come to an agreement. After a committee had looked into the matter for a week, the schedule as first proposed was formally adopted.

Even though there are only six schools to be placed, every one of these contests is expected to be a fight from start to finish. From what is known of the prospects at the different schools, Hollywood's team seems to be stronger than last year's squad, unless Santa Ana is the one to make the improvement. Duffy Sear, coach of the State championship team at Pasadena, has been hit hard by the graduation of many stars, but even at that Sear is going to have a team that will be far from the second in the country. Long Beach, and Santa Ana, are the ones somebody will have a hard time beating.

The other two schools represented, Whittier and Long Beach, are considered above average teams. At present it looks as though the cellar position will be fought out by these two squads, with Long Beach the favorite for hitting the mark.

Following is the league schedule: October 7—Long Beach at Whittier.

October 21—Pasadena at Whittier.

October 26—Whittier at Santa Ana.

November 4—Santa Ana at Long Beach.

November 18—Pasadena at Santa Ana.

November 29—Long Beach at Pasadena.

Fred Tschirky's USC freshmen will be seen in action in a regular game today for the first time this season when they will meet at the L. A. Junior College squad at Boardman Field. There will be a few surprises to make the fans feel that it is a real game and not just a practice scrimage.

Since their scrimage with the St. Vincent squad, Coach Novis' men have improved in the Junior College line-up and has strengthened the team considerably. This change has been made so as to have a good power in the back field. Following is the line-up:

Seventy men out for football practice every afternoon in the state capital, and Coach Moody of Hollywood is going to have a much better team to put in the field this season than he did last year, even though he has only three of his original men left after the practice games count for anything. Hollywood's eleven is going to have much more "punch" than they had last year, and this counts for a great deal in the game of football.

The second Monday in October held the fast Pomona team to a 12-to-6 victory and then defeated Santa Monica in their second game by a 22-to-0 score.

From all indications Coach Moody of Hollywood is going to have a much better team to put in the field this season than he did last year, even though he has only three of his original men left after the practice games count for anything.

Hollywood's eleven is going to have much more "punch" than they had last year, and this counts for a great deal in the game of football.

HOPES IN GROWERS.

of the crop in the field affected the farmers of this county face a loss from the present rain, comes at an especially bad time for the bean crop yet unharvested," says a Santa Barbara citizen. The value of the golden beans is $10,000 with present supplies. The white bean crop is damaged with the percentage of loss in California, the crop loss is about $25,000. The walnut crop is placed at 50 cent.

Santa Ana rain began falling about 10 o'clock this morning, bean, sugar beet and walnuts had received by the time away of the storm of yesterday turned to gloom. Then the weather turned to the earlier had just dried off enough to start again, and additional rain will add to the damage done.

Turns started at midnights, the rain stopped, although it was lightly early in the evening, but showers fell in San Diego vicinity late yesterday afternoon and evening, and indications for more precipitation are.

SENATOR LEWIS PLEADS CAUSE.At the Courthouse.*FILLIP GIVEN TO DIVORCE ACTION.*INSINUATIONS MADE READ BY WOMAN'S WORDS.*Personal Magnetism Sweys Large Crowd.*Elaborates Few Wilson Acts to Boost Party.*United States Senator James Martin, Democratic whip, electrified an audience that completely filled Cline's Auditorium last night with his remarkable oratory. As a speaker he has few peers and his address in support of the administration of President Wilson was enthusiastically received.*Senator Lewis is a real silver-tongued orator. In addition, he is an actor and possesses such personal magnetism that his hearers often were swayed to him rather than to that which he spoke.*The gifted gentleman from Illinois talked for two hours. He elaborated whatever struck him as commendable in the official acts of the President and earnestly appealed to the voters of California to do their part in keeping the Democratic standard bearer at the head of the government another four years.*The speaker denied the prosperity being enjoyed in the East is "war prosperity." He declared it is due to the rational policies of Woodrow Wilson and promised that the tide is sweeping toward the West.*He reviewed the legislative acts of the Democratic Congress in relation to the tariff and monetary system and asserted that "we have struck the death blow to panics for ever and forever." He said the creating of the Tariff Commission removed the tariff from the football of politics.*The speaker did not dwell to extent upon the administration's attitude in connection with the European war other than to commend the President for maintaining peace and declared it has been done with honor.In treating the Mexican situation Senator Lewis justified the action of the President by declaring that "as we demand justice of Mexico before God we will give justice to Mexico." He however, suggested that the proper solution to the problem would have been recognition of Huerta, declaring there could have been no justice in approving the acts of a man whose hands were stained with the blood of his own people."We, I, do command my fellow-Americans to view this situation and to their country in unity, that all differences that are now at issue shall be unworthy of acceptance as compared to the great issue before the world demanding 'what America and the world demand' vindicated before its own people, or repudiated to the gratification of her foreign enemies and stand dismally before the world," the speaker said in summing up the President's "war record."*Senator Lewis made considerable capital out of the new eight-hour day, declaring it should not be repudiated to the Republican party when it embodied the principles set forth by William McKinley.*Senator Lewis was introduced by George A. Patton, Democratic candidate for United States Senator. Mr. Patton made a good speech and was given a hearty greeting. Mr. Patton and Mr. Bowden, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Tenth District, and Charles H. Rindfuss, prohibition-Democratic candidate in the Ninth Congress District, were recommended in eulogistic terms by Senator Lewis.*Delays.
MUST FIGHT FOR IT.Frank Greaser's Will, Leaving Two-hundred-thousand-dollar Estate to Nieva, is Attacked by Brother on Ground He was Influenced.*Two young women in the East, who were raised to affluence by the will of William B. French, their uncle, whom they had not seen for seventeen years, must battle to retain their fortune, because another uncle, Stephen A. French, has attacked the will on the ground that his brother was unduly influenced. Their heirs are Ella Lawrence Pitt and Ethel Adel Wood.*The trial of the contest was set for November 15, before a jury, by Superior Judge McCormick, yesterday. The testimony showed that William B. French, a former railway track greaser, never lived to enjoy the $200,000 bequeathed to him by his sister in Ceylon. Shortly after it came to him he passed away and he was planning how to invest the money.*His brother also received a portion of his sister's estate and endeavored to have the Probate Court to have some appointed to administer it. His son, Charles W. McGwire, who was carrying out the department with its present force, and at the same time carry on the work of the department. Charles W. A. Martin, a motion-picture actress, to give the fillip to the divorce suit of Mrs. Flora M. Persons before Superior Judge Wood yesterday. In explaining the circumstances of Thomas A. Persons's refusing to live with her, Mrs. Persons incidentally mentioned the other woman. She knew there was another woman because of the reports of detectives.Judge Wood wanted more facts about this end of the case not alleged in the complaint, and Mrs. Martin was asked. A slimy red head was gracefully thrown around her head and shoulders and tragedy seemed to stalk through her words. She knew about Miss Notter, and she knew about Mrs. Persons."My dressing-room adjoined hers. They were separated by a board partition and there were half-inch cracks. I saw a great deal of this woman, more than I wanted to, or ever intended."*The court asked a plain question which had reference to Mr. Persons's attentions to Miss Notter, and she was compelled to admit that she was a free woman. He said he was through with his wife. A property settlement was agreed upon, by the terms of which Mrs. Persons was to receive $5000, $100 a month for seven months, and Attorney R. W. Kemp stated, Mrs. Persons admitted that she has not received the money.*MEYERS' ESTATE.*FAIL TO INDEX WILL.*Mrs. Mary C. de Meyer, who died August 8, last, owned property in Los Nietos, Whittier and the Rincon ranch in Riverside county, according to the petition for letters of administration filed yesterday by the District Attorney.*The speaker will speak on "The Power of Unity."*Face About.*WOMAN DENIES ALL.*Indictment is Lacking, Federal Commissioners Postpone Definite Action in Case of Man Charged with Violating White Slave Act.*At the City Hall.*TO HASTEN WORK ON FIRST STREET.*ENGINEER IS INSTRUCTED TO PUSH PRELIMINARIES.*Opening and Widening of Artery from Lake Shore Drive to Temple Street and Vermont Avenue will be Put Through as Quickly as is Possible, is Promise.*Instructions were given yesterday by the Public Works Committee of the City Council for the hastening of the preliminaries for the opening and widening of West First street from Lake Shore drive to Temple street and Vermont avenue.*It is proposed to go ahead with the work from Lake Shore avenue to Virgil avenue first.
